POLICE AND FACIAL RECOGNITION TECHNOLOGY

LAW ENFORCEMENT CONCERNED, LAWMAKERS SHOW BIPARTISAN SUPPORT FOR BAN

“

We will not sell facial-recognition technology to police departments in the United States until we have a national law in place, grounded in human rights, that will govern this technology.

*Brad Smith
Microsoft President*

“

We're implementing a one-year moratorium on police use of Amazon's facial recognition technology. We've advocated that governments should put in place stronger regulations to govern the ethical use of facial recognition technology, and in recent days, Congress appears ready to take on this challenge. ...

Responsible Use of Technology

IBM no longer offers general purpose IBM facial recognition or analysis software. IBM firmly opposes and will not condone uses of any technology, including facial recognition technology offered by other vendors, for mass surveillance, racial profiling, violations of basic human rights and freedoms, or any purpose which is not consistent with our values and Principles of Trust and Transparency.
